The City is home to the Samaritan Pacific Communities Hospital, and the main campus of the Oregon Coast Community College. OCCC is a premier educational institution and unique in its aquarist program. Its aquarist graduates are working in aquarium and research facilities throughout the country. Newport has a population of more than 10,000.

The Yaquina River flows into the Pacific Ocean through Newport's Yaquina Bay. Newport is home to the Oregon Coast Aquarium, one of the country's premier aquariums. A substantial commercial fishing fleet calls Newport home, as do several marine research vessels and a large number of private boats docked in marinas around the Bayfront. Newport is one of three deep-water ports on the Oregon Coast. Tonnage of shipping on the Oregon coast is second behind Coos Bay.

Newport has often been described as the most authentic city on the entire Oregon Coast. The City boasts numerous fine shops, restaurants, galleries, lodging establishments, and endless, year-round outdoor recreational opportunities.

Proximity to Portland and the Willamette Valley provides a strong tourism base, and the mid-latitude of Oregon provides moderate rainfall during the winter and spring months, and mild temperatures throughout the year.

The City Organization

Newport is organized under the Council-Manager form of government. Under this type of government, the elected City Council (Mayor and six Councilors) establish policy and the Council appointed City Manager is responsible for executing such policy while acting as Chief Operating Officer for the City.

Newport is a full-service city providing a wide range of municipal services, including police, fire, finance, public works, water and sewer utilities, community development, airport, parks and recreation, library, and urban renewal. The adopted 2013/2014 combined city/urban renewal agency budget is approximately $54 million.

The Finance Department

The City of Newport Finance Department is responsible for the financial operations of the City, including financial reporting, accounts payable, accounts receivable, investment of City monies, utility billing, payroll, and collection of municipal court fines and fees. The Finance Department provides good customer service to other City departments, and to the citizens who visit city hall to pay for services or gather information. The Finance Director and Finance Department work closely with the City Manager and Department Heads in developing the annual budget, and supporting the Department Heads reporting, payable, and purchasing needs.
